

COLD WAR AT MIAMI FILM FESTIVAL

The Miami Film Festival (MFF) has worked in partnership with The American Institute of Polish Culture for over three decades. On October 13, 2018, we sponsored a wine reception at the Tower Theater in Miami following the Polish film, Cold War. The show was sold out, and many friends and members of AIPC along with foreign film enthusiasts mingled at the reception where there was a lot of stimulating discussion about the film.

AIPC is proud to be a sponsor and collaborator of MFF which is committed to bringing wonderful inspiring and moving films from around the world.
